

Privacy Policy for Lake Washington Ham Club a Washington Nonprofit Corporation

The Lake Washington Ham (LWHC) collects some Personally Identifiable Information (PII) so that we may contact people as needed. However, most contact will occur over a member's voluntary subscription to LWHC's groups.io lists. LWHC will delete such information if requested.

The LWHC website may store cookies in the web browser of anyone looking at it. However, we do not track or retain the PII of anyone visiting the site.

LWHC will take reasonable steps to protect members' privacy, and we will not disclose members' information to any person or entity outside of the Lake Washington Ham Club.

We do not store or retain any payment information. However, it is up to members to be familiar with the privacy policies of any payment services LWHC uses, such as, but not limited to, PayPal.
